A SSISTANT QUARTERMASTER'S OFFICE. FORAGE AND RIVER TRANSPORTATION SEVENTH STREET WEARF, WASHINGTON, D. C., August 25, 1864.

CIECULAR.

In accordance with instructions from Brigadier General D. H. Rucker, Chief Quartermaster, Depot of Washington, I have placed schooners at Upper and Lower Cedar Points, in the positions occupied by the light boats, previous to their destruction by the rebels.

From sunset until surrise a light will be swang from each of the schooners. The reason given by captains of vessels, chartered and owned by the United States Quartermaster Department, for acchoring in the Patomac river at night, was, that they feared that they would run their vessels aground if they attemped to run past the shoals after dark. The lamps placed on the schooners will give a light sufficiently strong to enable all pilots to pass up and down the river with safety, provided they govern themselves by the charts provided by United States Coast Survey.

From and after this date, no vessel propelled by steam will be allowed to anchor, excepting in such weather as by running the loss of the vessel or cargo might be endangered.

All masters of vessels are directed to report any neglect on the part of the parties on board of the light schooners, in not keeping their lights burning at all hours of the night.

A copy of this circular will be kept posted in the pilet house of every vessel owned and chartered by the Government, plying on the Potomac rive

Mr. Barr introduced a bill to trim and gravel M street north from 13th to 14th streets west; and it was read three times and passed. Mr. Plant, from committee on fire departnt, reported favorably upon the nomination of John W. Thompson as fire commissioner, vice W. E. Hutchinson, resigned; and he was confirmed. Mr. Barr returned to the Board a plan of G. W. Frankland for cleansing the Washington canal, with a view to its transmission to the Mayor, to be laid by him before the engineer to be appointed to take the whole subject under consideration. Mr. Lloyd reported an actincreasing the compensation of the Canal Commissioner to $800, (he receives $500 now,) with a favorable re-commendation, and Mr. Canfield moved to amend it by fixing the salaries of the officers of the Washington Asylum as follows: Intendent, $900: physician, $500; commissioners, $250 each; and secretary, $300. Mr. Utermehle did not consider the subject ceuld be made to increase the salaries of certain Corporation officers. He proposed to have the subject referred back to the committee on Messrs. Plant, Utermehle, and Lloyd made statements to the effect that the Canal Commis-sioner had by assiduous attention to his duties, increased the revenue of the Corporation several thousand dellars. He was not allowed to engage in any other occupation, and all ad-

Mr. Canfield held that it was, as the bill mitted that his salary should be increased.

Mr. Canfield said he had prepared and showed to the chairman of the finance committee, before the general appropriation bill passed, the names of a number of officers who deserved an increase of salary. He desired to make the amendment proposed to this bill a The amendment was lost, and the bill then passed. Adjourned. Common Council.-The following members were present, but there being no quorum, the Board adjourned over: Messrs. Davis, Dudley, Edmonston, Ferguson, Larner, Marche, Stephens, Swain, Ward, and Lloyd. The cause of there being so few present was that in nearly every ward meetings in relation to the draft were being held, in which the members of the Council were interested.

THE GEORGETOWN DRAFT MEETING .- Last night, the citizens of Georgetown assembled in the Custom House, pursuant to adjournment last Saturday night, to complete their measures for filling the town quota without the draft, Long before the hour the men began to assemble in and around the Custom House, and as soon as the hall was illuminated, Mr. J. W. Deeble, the treasurer of the meeting, took a seat at the clerk's table, and a number of gentlemen came forward and contributed to the fund, in sums ranging from five to a hundred dollars. The president, J. A. Magruder, Esq., called the meeting to order, and announced that the first business in order would be the reports of committees appoined by the meeting last Saturday night. First the committee of collectors. When first appointed the committee consisted of twenty gentlemen; but they had a meeting and added eight to their number, making twenty-eight. Of these, ten reported a total of about $5,200 last night. A gentleman suggested that an arrangement might be made with the association which was organized on the plan suggested by Mayor Addison, by which their fund might be used to relieve the town of the draft.

Mayor Addison suggested that the association referred to would meet to-morrow (Tuesday) night, and this meeting might appoint a committee to confer with the association upon the subject of a combined effort to relieve the town of the draft. The combination might be effected.

Mr. Hill moved for the appointment of a committee of five to meet the Mutual Insurance Association, and confer with them upon the combination as suggested. Mayor Addison hoped that the collectors would continue their efforts in the meantime to increase the fund. The motion was carried; and the President appointed Messrs. George Hill, Alexander Shekells, Wm. Godey, J. W. Deeble, and R. A. Shinn.

Mr. Clements, from the committee to visit Alexandria and enquire about the probability of securing volunteers sufficient to fill the quota, reported that he, with other citizens, visited Alexandria, and were satisfied by their interview with Col. Boyd, Adjutant Young, Lieut. Col. Drew, Major Breck, and Judge Underwood, that success is certain if the citizens will be active and liberal. Col. Boyd and Adjutant Young assured the committee that if they (the citizens) had the money they (the officers) had the men. Lieut. Col. Drew (the officers) had the men. Lieut. Col. Drew assured the committee that he would do all he could to aid them, and they might obtain sixteen men to-day if they would send the money. The amount they asked was $325. Judge Underwood thought that in three days he could raise for the committee a company of negroes. Mr. Clements told the officers in Alexandria that to-day (Tuesday) they might expect Mr. Hill in Alexandria with the money to secure the sixteen men offered. Mr. Clements said he intended to continue his efforts, and if the money is raised, the men will be raised in five days.

The Chair stated that Saturday night a resolution was adopted that in case the entire quota cannot be filled, the money contributed shall be refunded to the contributors. The treasurer said that unless that resolution is rescinded, he cannot pay over any of the money in his hands. Several collectors also stated their aid, which was carried, and Messrs. G. W. King, Jenkins, Thomas, and R. A. Shinn were appointed.

Messrs. John Stoke, Richard Pettit, and -Herron were appointed to waft on the President and faculty of Georgetown College and solicit their aid.

It was also requested that the members of the Corporation present request the Mayor to call a meeting of the Councils to make an appropriation to aid this object. The meeting ordered that the Treasurer report to the Corporation about how much will be required to fill the quota.

The President warned them that they should not depend upon the Corporation. They really had no power to make appropriations for such a purpose. Some conversation ensued upon the subject of the mutual exemption fund, but there being no business before the meeting it adjourned, in order that the exemption association might have time to meet and act.

ANOTHER CAMPAIGN FLAG FLUNG TO THE Breeze.-On Saturday evening a large crowd collected at the corner of Seventh street and Pennsylvania avenue for le purpose of witnessing the raising of a Lincoln and Johnson campaign flag, by the Ohio and Massachusetts Military State Agencies. The flag hangs over the Avenue, the rope extending from the Washington Buildings to a building on the south side of the Avenue. When the flag was displayed it was greeted with cheers, the band of Cliff burne Barracks at the same time playing the "Star Spangled Banner" Upon both sides of the flag are inscribed the names of Lincoln and Johnson, and also the following mottoes: "Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable."- Webster. "There can be but two parties in this contest-patriots and traitors."-Dauglas. "Come what will, I will keep faith with friend and foe."-Lincoln. "The Federal Union must be preserved."-

"I will never give my vote for the further extension of human slavery."-Clay.
"You should be treated as traitors, tried as traitors, and hung as traitors."-Andrew Jack-

Ex-Secretary Chase was introduced to those assembled, and spoke as fellows: Fellow-citizens: Massachusetts and Ohio having each, in the building near which we stand, an agency for the care of her soldiers, have joined in providing the flag which has just been unfurled. It symbolizes union, freedom and territorial integrity. Inspired by these grand ideas, the soldiers of Ohio and Massachusetts march side by side to battle, wherever, throughout the land, rebellion and treason are found in arms. The flag, too, proclaims the conviction of a vast majority of these soldiers, and of their fellow-citizens at home, that the inestimable benefits represented by these ideas can be most surely realized by ratifying, at the ballot-boxes in November, the nominations made at Baltimore in June. In my judgment, this is most certain; and I rejoice in the belief that, as the soldiers of Massachusetts and Ohio are found side by side in the conflicts of the field, so will the citizens of these States be found zealously vieing with each other in support of the same cause at the polls. Nor can I doubt the result. In all the loyal States, like zeal for Union and freedom will inspire like efforts, and these efforts, in a large majority of them-may we not hope in all ?-will insure the triumph of Union and freedom. With that triumph the last hope of rebellion will disappear; and, under that flag, will return peace and liberty to bless the Republic, undivided and indi-

But this, fellow-citizens, is not an occasion for much speaking. Another engagement also requires my presence elsewhereat this time. I have come before you, indeed, not so much to speak myself as to introduce another, to whose voice you will gladly listen. My friend, Gov. Andrew, of Mass., is here. Worthy of his State; worthy of the unanimous nomination fer re-election which he has just received; worthy of the honor in which all friends of Union and freedom hold him, he will say a few words in behalf of Massachusetts. Permit me to introduce him. Mr. Chase was followed by some spirited remarks by Gov. Andrew, of Mass.

Mr. Riddle, of Ohio, formerly a member of Congress, and Mr. John B. Prince, of the Treasnry Department, followed in appropriate remarks; and the assembly dispersed with cheers for the Baltimore nominees. FOURTH WARD STATION CASES .- Caroline Adams, selling liquor unlicensed; dismissed. Annie Sinsley, do.; $20.61. Ann Scott, indecent language; $10. HOW THEY KEEP UP THE PRICE OF GOLD .-The New York Commercial Advertiser says that there is a reason why gold, which it was that there is a reason why gold, which it was supposed by this time would fall to 200, still fluctuates between 220 and 230. It is explained by the fact that the regular operators have during the last ten days adopted a very general system of accepting due bills, in lieu of deliveries of gold, which pass from one to another, probably circulating for a week before they return to the issuers. This immensely facilitates speculation, and has, for the present, effectually checked the downward tendency of the price checked the downward tendency of the price. If perpetuated, there is no saying to what figure this system may not run up the price of gold. It is the most dangerous phase of the gold inflation that has yet appeared, and, if continued, will some day bring a retribution of loss upon those who lend themselves to it. It is said that even firms reputed conservative and respectable have resorted to thus unsound and mischie vous expedient. Imagine the same system adopted with respect to stocks, and to what unheard of prices might they not be run up. It is a form of credit operations that should be promptly discountenanced. THE BALTIMORE AND OHIO RAILBOAD .-That portion of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad destroyed by the rebels, lying between Harper's Ferry and North Mountain, will be entirely repaired by Wednesday next, but the time for the opening of the road and the regular running of the freight and passenger trains has not been announced. It is thought that the trains will not be run this week, unless Gen. Sheridan so advises. Official notification will be given the public previous to the day of running trains.—Balt. Sun.

PRINCE GEORGE AFFAIRS .- A very severe storm of hail swept over a part of this county and of Calvert. on Saturday afternoon last, causing, in its track, an unprecedented destruction of the growing crops. We hear of whole fields of tobacco that was literally stripped to pieces and destroyed.

A negro girl, belonging to Mrs. Henry D. Hatton, of Piscataway District, was committed to jail at this place yesterday, upon a charge of firing and burning the stables and granary upon the estate of that lady .- Prince Georgian. Sept. 16th. THE CANVASS IN KENTUCKY .- The Union men and Copperheads have had meetings in Lexington. Dr. Breckinridge, on behalf of the Union men, challenged the Copperheads to a joint debate, but the latter declined. Dr. Breckinridge and others then addressed a large Union meeting. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed, and the prospects in the state are reported to be encouraging. People who were desponding a while ago now feel confident that Lincoln will carry the State. DELAWARE POLITICS .- Rumor says that there is a great flare up in the copperhead campin Delaware, and that a number of prominent men in the party have declared that they cannot support the two-faced policy of the managers of Gen. McClellan.—Delaware Jour-

Gen'l Truman Seymour's response to a serenade at Brattleboro: "My friends, I am glad to see you. I am going to the Army of the Potomac in a few days. A good many of you look able to go, and I should like to have you go with me. Good evening."

Mount Washington letter says that nearly all the waiters at the hotels are young lady school-teachers, of intelligent aspect, and easy, affable manners. They take this plan each season of seeing the mountains and of making an honest dollar at the same time. We Mr. Jacob Huber, one of the oldest and wealthiest citizens of York county, Pa., was in-
